Nothing Greater

What is life supposed to mean?
A mystery?
Some mystery

Who am I supposed to be?
When I could be Anything

Is this real or just a dream
Or do I know or just believe
Are these feelings that I fear reality?

My eyes are open, now I see
With the utmost certainty
That time is leading - it slips away

There is nothing greater than this
No other place or time I know
There is nowhere I'd rather be so why ask for
Why ask for more

So many things to do and see
For me to know
For me to be

I never realized 'til now
What this life means
Means to me

Relive a lie and die each day
Pretending it's not happening
But we need it - we all need it to believe

Somebody out there help me please Give me some peace and set me free Stop me from making the same mistakes

There is nothing greater than this
No other place or time I know
There is nowhere I'd rather be so why ask for
Why ask for more

What is a worry
There is no hurry
These are the stories of our lives

The moment, the glory
The sound and the fury
These are the stories of our lives

Nothing greater than this
Nothing greater than this

Stop dreaming of fictitious places
Just take a look around
Everything you want is right here
Everything you need is now
Everything is yours to try
You are free to change your mind

You don't need a reason why
To spread your wings and touch the sky

As We Lay Silent

When did everything break down?
It seems like yesterday when all was right
It's not how its suppose to be
The end of history and all we love
Theirs a flaw in the mirror
So blind not to see
Lifting fog getting clearer
It's you and me

As we lay silent
The world is dying
Theirs no denying
We are in the final days
The final days

We stand at the precipice
Pretending it does not exist
It's such a crime
Now the end drawing nearer
And still all we see
Full of lies hate and fear
And our final defeat

As we Lay silent
The world is dying
Theirs no denying
We are in the final days
The final days

We cannot afford the luxury
Of our complacency
There's no time

As we lay silent
The world is dying
Theirs no denying
We are in the final days
The final days

As we lay silent
The world is dying
Theirs no denying
We are in the final days
The final days

My True Love

My true love - the only one for me
And the other there will never be My true love - always there for me
When I'm feeling so lonely
My true love calls my name
That's when I go running
My true love will never let me down
Please don't let me down

The more that I see you
The more that I need you
This feeling just won't go away

I can't live without you
I won't ever doubt you
I'm begging you - don't go away

My true love whispers to me
Tells me all the things that I want to hear
My true love takes over me
Will never let me go, never set me free
My true love is my everything
Everything I am, all I'll ever be
My true love will never let me down
Please don't let me down

The more that I see you
The more that I need you
This feeling just won't go away
(Won't go, won't go away)

I can't live without you
I won't ever doubt you
I'm begging you - don't go away
(Don't go, don't go away)

You have left your mark on me
I will never be the same
Even if I walk away

Your heavenly embrace
Not so easy to erase
Will I ever have the strength
To say goodbye to you

The more that I see you
The more that I need you
This feeling just won't go away

I can't live without you
I won't ever doubt you
I'm begging you - don't go away

Louder Than Words

Talk to me
There is something that you are not telling me
I can almost see right through you
Look at me
The truth doesn't always come easily
Your actions have clearly spoken for you
Louder than words

Please hear me
Why is all of this happening suddenly?
Has this been hiding deep inside you?
Now I see
All the signs that were right there in front of me
Your actions have clearly spoken for you
Louder than words
Louder than words

You hook through the earth and the moon and the sun
In my heart you were the only one
It's so hard to believe that it's over
But it's through
You were all that I could ever want
I've been lost ever since you've been gone
And now there's nothing left of me

Now that we Are living our new lives seperately
My heart is completely broken in two
You are free
Far away from my pain and my misery
Your actions have clearly spoken for you
Louder than words
Louder than words

Your actions have clearly spoken for you
Louder than words
Louder than words

Second Chance

Thank you for your patience
A simple explanation
As I've been lying to myself

It has taken me a while
I've been wrapped up in denial
But the truth is finally coming out

Is there a second chance for me?
A new day ready to dawn?
How long will circumstance own me?
Just who is running the show?
I don't know...

There's a gaping hole
At the bottom of my soul
The more I feed it, the larger it grows

Is it better to die slowly?
All this living quickly
Is really starting to get old

Is there a second chance for me?
A new day ready to dawn?
How long will circumstance own me?
Just who is running the show?

It's not so easy to see
What's standing in front of me
It's very clear to me now
There's no mistaking

All the life left in me
All the love forgiving
There's nothing holding me down...

Searching through my mind
Sifting through the facts and lies
To find something I knew long ago

If there's one thing sure in life
We'll be all victims in time
So you have to save yourself or drown

Is there a second chance for me?
A new day ready to dawn?
How long will circumstance own me?
Just who is running the show? I know!

There is a second chance for me
A new day ready to dawn
No more shall circumstance own me
Now on, I'm running the show!

It Always Ends the Same

Believe in nothing
Break every rule
No sense in being
Just another tool
They want to sell you something
You don't need
Drain you of everything until
You start to bleed

No matter what you say
It doesn't mean a thing
You're living in a dream
It always ends the same

No matter what you say
It doesn't mean a thing
You're living in a dream
It always ends...

I don't believe you
I won't comply
You cannot catch me
In your web of lies
If you think that you control me
You're deceived
I won't be bought into this Mass insanity

No matter what they say
It doesn't mean a thing
They're living in a dream
It always ends the same

No matter what they say
It doesn't mean a thing
They're living in a dream
It always ends...

Some day, some way
The entire world will go up in flames
Some day, some way
No matter what we do, no matter what we say
Some day, some way
The entire world will go up in flames
Some day, some way...
We all die...
We all die...
We all die...

No matter what I say
It doesn't mean a thing
I'm living in a dream
It always ends the same

No matter what I say
It doesn't mean a thing
I'm living in a dream

It always ends...

It always ends...
It always ends...
It always ends, it always ends... the same

Simple

The perfect moment
To share with you my revelation
You might not believe it
Life should not be this complicated

Everything you need to know is right in front of your face You'll never get what you don't ask for
Nobody ever really has it that great
It's simple so simple to me

Caught up in the moment
So unaware what's arbitrary
We don't even notice
The miniscule is extraordinary

Everything you need to know is right in front of your face
You'll never get what you don't ask for
Nobody ever really has it that great
It's simple so simple to me

There really can be another way
So simple it defies reason
The only thing we have is today
The only thing we need is love
The only thing we need is love
The only thing we need is love

That's what keeps me going
Our love life's truths yet to uncover
And finally knowing
That joy and pain are part of each other

Everything you need to know is right in front of your face
You'll never get what you don't ask for
Nobody ever really has it that great
It's simple so simple to me

Night and Day

I want so much to hold you in my arms close
It's like a lifetime passed me by just yesterday
And the only thought that gets tomorrow
Is that you will soon be near me by night and day

I dream about you in every way
I can't live without you
Now that you know
I never wanna be without you
Will you find your way to me?

The more that I go
Another day alone without you
Feels like eternity
Night and day

My love for you continues to grow stronger
The only thought of you makes my body ache
I'm not sure if I can take this too much longer
I am counting every second, night and day

I dream about you in every way
I can't live without you, no, no
Now that you know
I never wanna be without you
Will you find your way to me?

The more that I go
Another day alone without you
Feels like eternity

I want to see you, hold you
Reveal my love for you, for deep and never ends
Say the words to you I've always meant to say
Say that we should be together night and day

Temporary

Thoughts in my head of the end that awaits me
No turning away I hope and I pray for one more day
When all has been said the sum equals nothing
The endless debate of free will and what's fate won't solve a thing

You and me are nothing more than temporary
You are me, there's no wall it's all imaginary

People I see so lost in the shuffle
Caught up in the game they cannot escape the cage they've made
Day after day we fight and we squander
The more that we take the further we stray from what we need

We, we are running out of time
What are we all waiting for?
What are we really running from?

Don't Be Afraid

There are times
when the world feels like it's closing in on us
There are times
when our doubt and fear can get the best of us It's not so surprising it feels like you're dying, the moment when everything starts falling apart
You don't realise it, but you can survive it, the only thing you need to do is follow your heart

Don't be afraid,
in the morning you will know
you won't feel this way for long
I'm saying don't be afraid,
see how far that you've come,
you have only just begun to make it

You will find there is more to you when you begin to try, you will find that life's hardest parts become your favorite times Just keep your eyes set on the horizon, even when everything is falling apart
You won't need reminding or require guiding, as long as you remember just to follow your heart

Don't be afraid,
in the morning you will know
you won't feel this way for long
I'm saying, don't be afraid,
see how far that you've come,
you have only just begun to make it

Don't run away
Don't hide inside
don't dig a hole,
jump in and close your eyes
there's a stand to make,
you got a chance to take,
don't let it slip away
Now everything bends before it breaks

Don't run away
Don't hide inside
Don't dig a hole,
jump in and close your eyes
there's a stand to make,
you got a chance to take,
don't let it slip away
Now everything bends before it breaks

Don't be afraid,
in the morning you will know
you won't feel this way for long
I'm saying, don't be afraid,
see how far that you've come
you have only just begun to make it

Don't be afraid,
in the morning you will know

you won't feel this way for long
I'm saying, don't be afraid,
see how far that you've come,
you have only just begun to make it
