Escape Hatch

Here I Am

Shadows of a man
That I used to be Buried in my memory
They say that it was me

Hiding in the daylight
Sleeping in the dark
I'm nowhere and no one
Distance afar

And the world keeps on turning
It keeps spinning around
All the while they are yearning

Hearts filled
Ego with lust
Mine's still growing mistrust
Here I am

This fire slow as it burns
Consumes all that we've learnt
Here I am

Slowly we become
Creatures of decay
Living in the rumble
Until that faithful day

Buried under debris
Murdered by our fear
Still nowhere
And no one
So close, so near

And the world keeps on turning
It keeps spinning around
So consumed by our yearnings

Hearts filled
Ego with lust
Mine's still growing mistrust
Here I am

This fire slow as it burns
Consumes all that we've learnt
Here I am

Hatred growing still Nowhere left to be
Save me from this madness
A distance memory

Somewhere in the future
Will it look the same
In darkness and chaos
Desperate inane

And the world keeps on turning

It keeps spinning around
All the while they are yearning
Here in space without sound

Destroyed

Technique bass keys drums

Swimming thoughts
That ring in my ears
Drowning waves
They throw me clear

There was
Technique bass keys drums
Destroyed.

So we go
Into the night
Hearts ablaze
No end in sight

There was
Technique bass keys drums
Destroyed

A Great Divide

I remember
In September
With the daylight flickering
The endless days of youth

We are travelling
On the shore here
In the air and over ground
A hundred miles or two

What have you done?
Where have you been?
Somewhere outside
The space between

What have you done?
Things that you've seen
A great divide
The space between

It's a feeling
Overwhelming
See me drowning in the tide
Before the day is through

There are faces
Looking out now
Is it all I
All I want to be
To be that close to you?

What have you done?
Where have you been?
Somewhere outside
The space between

What have you done?
Things that you've seen
A great divide
The space between

Buildings and people
Moving around
Time moves so slowly
Making no sound

Crushed by our anger
Hurt by our fears
Suffer in darkness
So close, so near

What have you done?
Where have you been?
Somewhere outside
The space between

What have you done?
Things that you've seen

A great divide
The space between

Black Rain

I woke
With a feeling
Something in the air
I saw
Disbelieving
Their remains everywhere

They all stood in the front of me
Dust blown all around
Dragon flies
The sky's on fire
Hear the deafening sound

If the fires don't burn you
Or the winds blowing ill
On the mound built from fire
Then the black rain it will
Yes the black rain it will

Black rain falling
Falling down all over me

Day dreams
So surreal they Feel like I'm awake
This thirst
Overwhelming
Conscious I might break

Once here stood in front of me
Buildings everywhere
Frozen time
The earth's on fire
Flames rise everywhere

If the fires don't burn you
Or the winds blowing ill
On the mound built from fire
Then the black rain it will
Yes the black rain it will

Black rain falling
Falling down all over me

If the fires don't burn you
Then the black rain it will

Desire

Time goes by
Life is fleeting
Words are weapons
Dangerous and cruel

When all we want
Is to feel good
Im coming around your house
To have some fun

Ohh
When we go
Underground
In the depths of you
Underground, moves about

Hells on fire
Am I dreaming
Cities a blaze
Were burning a new

Prophets scientists
Live in conflict
Don't let me near your heart
Ill tear it in two

Ohh
When we go
Underground
In the depths of you

Ohh let me go
Underground
In the depths of you

Robot Human

Tired broken diplomats
Running round with baseball bats
Tv plays another cure
Leaves you feeling insecure

Metal birds fly in the sky
Remotely via satellite
Sun shines down and burns the ground
Silence makes a deafening sound

Two parts human
One part droid
Almost human
Seek destroy
Two parts human
Somewhat void
Robot human

One part human
Two parts droid
Almost human
Life devoid
Sense of being
All destroyed
Two parts human

Find me on a map at sea
Makes us all evolve believe
You have nothing else to fear
Come closer I just want you near

Floating out here in the stars
Miles from earth yet close to mars
Discovery a step to new Armies ready
Are we through?

Two parts human
One part droid
Almost human
Seek destroy
Two parts human
Somewhat void
Robot human

One part human
Two parts droid
Almost human
Life devoid
Sense of being
All destroyed
Two parts human

Robot human

Trace Words

Trace words
Whispers heard
Flying birds are watching over me
And I think I'm free

Body search
Memory purge
Dying words all captured on tv
And we say we're free

And we say we're free

Satellite
Distant cries
Crowds unite
It's there for all to see
But it's you and me

Pictures viewed
Voices heard
Words don't mean
What they used to be
Words like you and me

Nothing you say
Nothing you've heard
All of this time
A child could have learnt

And we say we're free
Words like you and me

Half Life

Half life
Half seen
Stand tall
And somewhat clean

As the years go by
We're looking for an out
I'll leave no tears
I'll leave no fear no doubt

I live in dreams
No doubt
As I live and breath

Once bitten
Twice shy
Forbidden
Yet still mine

I could run away
There's nowhere left it seems
The lights go out
And I'm living in dreams

A life that's real
I dream a life
No doubt I live
And breath
No doubt
I live in dreams

My hands full of nothing
I wanted it all
My head swims in motion
I wanted it all
My eyes filled with nothing
I wanted it all, it all
And I'm living in dreams

A life's that's real
I dream a life
No doubt
As I live and breath
No doubt
I live in dreams

The Things We Leave Behind

Rain falls on my window
And I know
I cannot breath the open air

I look behind the open doors
Just to see if Anyone is there

And I keep falling apart
Breaking down
Turning inside out
Always falling apart
Breaking down today

And the rain comes down
Touch the ground
All around
Without a sound

And the rain comes down
It touched the ground
It's all around

Somethings to remember
It's the price you pay
For being born this way

So much at stake
And time to kill
Waiting for the world
To go away
Still there's no one here today

Will be our only sign
The things we leave behind
They will be our only sign
The things we leave behind

And the rain comes down
Touch the ground
All around
Without a sound

And the rain comes down
It touched the ground
It's all around

When I'm Gone

Stay alive
For today
Sleeping my Days away
Things from afar
Aren't what they seem Leaves a path
Of broken dreams

All your time
Wasted here
Come so far
Still no near
To all the things you desire
Watch the flames
Take me higher

When I'm gone
Life goes on
When I'm gone
Life goes on
On and on
On and on
On and on

Somewhat vague
Or untrue
Lost in time
Thoughts of you
And who you are Where you have been
What you know
Things you've seen

When I'm gone
Life goes on
When I'm gone
Life goes on
On and on
On and on
On and on

Though I'm here
Wondering
What's it take
Make it real
Immortalize
Specify
Idolize
Open eyes

When I'm gone
Life goes on
On and on
On and on
On and on
