Uncharted Territory

Everything
I had built
Fell apart

What was left
Took me back
To the start

We live in fear
Inside a shell
So why pretend

If happiness
Isn't here
In the end

We stand alone
From what I see
Paths here unknown

We flew too high
Here no one can see
Direction unknown
Uncharted Territory

What I saw
What I heard
Does not align

Shattered hopes
Are washed away
We're ill advised

Still everything
And everyone
Holds a need

Silent world
Single voice
Hypocrisy

We stand alone
From what I see
Paths here unknown

We flew too high
Here no one can see
Direction unknown
Uncharted Territory

Everything that I seem to hear
Is all just noise it's so unclear
Truth and lies all blend
Until I'm numb

I was drowning,
Watch me descend
I fell so low
I had the bends
What will be left for us
I can't be sure

On a rope
By a thread
Hanging there

In the crowd
You said before
You didn't care

We stand alone
From what I see
Our Paths unknown

We flew too high
Here no one can see
Direction unknown
Uncharted Territory

Exit

I'm leaving now
Leaving here
So far away
Where it's so still

Countless days
Endless nights
Blazed in sun
Dark is night
Exit world
Exit life
Keep your words
And bad advice

Laying down my troubles
Standing still
Walking down the sidewalks
Of my fears
Once there was unease
But now fulfilled
Burnt away are ashes of my years

Nothing to say
Nothing to lose
Nothing to win or prove

Quiet earth
Distance homes
Are colonised
Our thoughts erased

Calm as day
Clear as night
Brightest sun
The darkest night

Exit world
Exit life
Keep your words
And compromise

Nothing to say
Nothing to lose
Nothing to win or prove

Laying down my troubles
Standing still
Walking down the sidewalks
Of my fears
Once there was unease
But now fulfilled
Burnt away are ashes of my years

Million Miles

Everything I touched
Every part I played
Crumbled in the dust
In disarray

No not today
I'm far away
A million miles
I'm far away from here

As far as I can see
Between you and me
And all the words you say
I cannot hear
As far as I can see
Between you and me
How can I make you see?

Look before you leap
That is what they say
Karma is a bitch
Knows my name

But not today
We're far away
A million miles
So far away from here

As far as I can see
Between you and me
And all the words you say
I cannot hear
As far as I can see
Between you and me
A million miles from me

Voices say a storm is coming
People drifting on the sea
All I hear are voices calling
Singing come and rescue me

Between you and me
A million miles from me
How can I make you see?
A million miles from me

Satellites

Floating in the night sky
I see it, then it's gone
Question my existence
The changes undergone

Trapped inside the city
The horizon, I cannot see
Lost inside a memory
All the days that passed
My reality

It's something to be seen

So high above
We're out of sight
And all I see
Are satellites

I felt so high
That I almost died
Never been so low
Now I'm out of sight
A satellite

My imagination
Overwhelms me, I'm adrift
Felt just like a prison
How it trapped me
And tore a rift

Somewhere there is someplace
That I don't know if I'll ever see
Shining in the night sky
Satellites go by, my reality
They're trapped inside of me

They're something to be seen

So high above
We're out of sight
And all I see
Are satellites

I felt so high
That I almost died
Never been so low
Now I'm out of sight
A satellite

Somewhere in the distance
Someplace never seen
Falling into nothing
Quiet and serene
We will not go gentle
Into that goodnight
Silent and eternal
Forever here, and out of sight
We're out of sight

Monochrome

Nobody knows where We're going
Path in the darkness
Not seen

I wish I could show you
What I've lost here
Was it fear hate lust
Or mistrust

All the times I've bleed
The moments I felt pain
Were far too real

Leaving all I've known
Following the sun
Is this for real?

Lost in a windstorm
Far from home
Colours are fading
Monochrome

But a cold isolation
Is all I feel
I scream in the dark
But no one can hear
A prisoner remains
In shackles and fear
I have get out
I have to be free

All the times I've bleed
The moments I felt pain
Were far too real

Leaving all I've known
Following the sun
Is this for real?

I am alive
From what I've seen
I'm here in the dark
Can you see me?
I cannot breathe

All the times I've bleed
The moments I felt pain
Were far too real

Leaving all I've known
Following the sun
Is this for real?

Counterpart

I got in my car
Headed for earth
I drove in the darkness
For what its worth

But Blind as my faith
I move toward

Here downpours the rain
From dusk to dawn
From land to sea
I'm lost in a dream

Disappeared
And all I know
What was lost is gone
I could not bare to swim inside this misery
A Counterpart
Evolved from me

White lines are scars
Memories remain
I witnessed a thousand miles
Of landscape aflame

But somewhere in the night
Darkness of the void
Crawling in the dark
Eyes that see it all

Disappeared
And all I know
What was lost is gone
I could not bare to swim inside this misery
A Counterpart

But somewhere in the night
Darkness of the void
Crawling in the dark
Eyes that see it all

So where does it go?
And where does it lead?
Still downpours the rain
From dusk til dawn
From land to sea
I'm lost in a dream

Disappeared
And all I know
What was lost is gone
I could not bare to swim inside this misery
A Counterpart

Departure

Lost control I am reeling
Cant get out of my mind
She's a temptress believe in
All of her lies

I feel like I'm moving
Crashing windows and panes
It feel like the worlds coming down all around me
Calling my name

Will I always toil and feel the same
All this worry driving me insane
Could it be true?
All the things I wish I knew before
Are just words unsaid I heard once more
Could it be true?

All that's left is a memory
Echoes here that remain
She's a temptress believe in
All her lies
And all her games

All I see is destruction
Dreams and truths that collide
So quiet I whisper to myself here
I'm unsatisfied

Will I always toil and feel the same
All this worry driving me insane
Could it be true?
All the things I wish I knew before
Are just words unsaid I heard once more
Could it be true?

Do you feel the same
When the lights go out?
Floating into space

Do you feel the same
When the lights go out?
Falling into space

Falling into space
Falling Into space

Will I always toil and feel the same
All this worry driving me insane
Could it be true?
All the things I wish I knew before
Are just words unsaid I heard once more
Could it be true?

Solitaire

When all is said and done
When all the birds have flown
I'm here to block the noise
From the wrongs I've known

It's everything I fear
And everything that's real
All I want to say
Where do we go from here?
Come with me

We'll sail across the seas
In time you will believe
In all the things I know
And all I've got to show here
It's in the truth that's clear
And everyone can hear
It's all I know
Has all I've known
Gone away

No words can ever say
Or is it only me?
To bridge this long divide
I have to set it free

But beauty is still here
If a higher god decides
When we say goodbye
Then come with me

We'll sail across the seas
In time you will believe
In all the things I know
And all I've got to show here
It's in the truth that's clear
And everyone can hear
It's all I know
Has all I've known
Gone away

Ohhh and I
Miss the things we do

Unrecognized

I woke from dreaming
Heard the rain
A moonlit evening and high tide

Waves came crashing
On the shore lines
Drowning out
Our lullabies

They sang goodbye
To you and I

We are stripped of innocence
A fear that's in your eyes
It said goodbye

A hurricane came crashing
We have been capsized
Was it me?
Was it you?
Was it something else
Unrecognized?

Raindrops falling
Through the ceiling
I open up my eyes
Dawn awaits and a new day
Is moving closer
To humanize

We are stripped of innocence
The fear that's in your eyes
It said goodbye

A hurricane came crashing
We have been capsized
Was it me?
Or Was it you?
Or Was it something else
Unrecognized?

Open your eyes
The sky is full of eyes
Watching you watching me
