Bodypart

Look at me - I'm still alive
Believe me - I'm one of your kind
I'm waiting for the night to crawl
You're twisting my mind
If only could make you feel
The fire that consumes me
Leaves me severely satisfied
Let us pretend you're paralysed

I want you

Take my claws - my flesh runs dry
Relieve me - I feed on your spine
You're done before the night is gone
You're doing alright
Give me strength and fill my brains
The power I've been losing
I need to seperate your heart
Cause it's my favourite bodypart

I want you
To be my destiny, my doom
I want you
To be the key to my front room
I want you
To be the dagger in my heart
I want you
To mark the point from where we start
I want you
To be my everlasting torch
I want you
To be the rocker on my porch
I want you
To be the crowbar to my door
I want you
That ain't enough cause I want more

Poison

I wanted you to be my promised land
I was young and naive, dreamed of Jeannie
And thought I loved Lucy
But Lucy has gone and so has my dream

Sure it's a wonderful life in the states
For the young who believe that the doughboy's
A friend of Bill Gates
Strike it rich and be nailed by a fruitcake one day
I saw your beauty and I felt the flow
Sensed the power of glory and
Worshipped the 4th of July
Didn't know what it means and how many have died

What will it be
Seize your final opportunity
For I can't tell
So name your poison

I sealed my fate in the Monterey Bay
Got a lox bagel sandwich instead of
A handfull o'sushi
The waitress' smile showed the juices within

I got a friend is as big as a whale
Leaving cracks in the pavement
And unable to read the scales
Munches fries, enchilladas and pork-chops all day

Phoenix

Lebe auf dem Raster, wenn Du's draußen schon nicht kannst
Wenn Deine Freunde Dich verspotten
Wahre Freunde hast Du nie gekannt
Jemand, der Dir was bedeutet - es gibt ihn nicht
Nur ein Reptil, das Lebendfutter frißt
Unverdauliches erbricht

In Deinen Träumen lebst Du nicht auf dieser Welt
Doch wer vermag zu sagen, wo ein Traum beginnt
Die Wirklichkeit verzerrt
Wo ist das Gefühl, das Deine Mutter Liebe nennt
Wenn sie nur ein- oder zweimal im Jahr so tut
Als ob sie Dich kennt

Es ist Zeit, Du bist reif
Für das Spiel der Unsterblichkeit
Dein Name in Silizium gebrannt
Du bist high, Du fühlst Dich frei
Die Unendlichkeit
So nah hast Du die Sterne nie gekannt

In Deinem Viertel bist Du längst schon prominent Und jedes Kind zeigt mit dem Finger auf den Jungen
Den es aus dem Fernsehen kennt
Nur der Alte aus dem Ersten versteht es nicht
Und jedem, der's nicht wissen will erzählt er
Was für'n netter Kerl Du bist

Wann hast Du die letzte Zuneigung gespürt
Und nicht als Opfer einer Eitelkeit mit angesehen
Daß keinen interessiert
Was Du fühlst, was in Dir vorgeht, was Du denkst
Was aus Dir wird, wenn Du am Boden liegst
Und wem Du Deine Lieblingsmurmeln schenkst

Mach Dich bereit für den letzten großen Start
Deine Gegner sind im Vorteil, haben kein Bewußtsein
Nur ein Automat
Möglich, daß Du heut Dein letztes Rennen fährst
Was hast Du schon zu verlieren, nur Dein Leben
Das ist eh schon nichts mehr wert

Peach

I don't know what to feel but roses
I keep on holding breath until the Night falls on my lonely bed
That was before the earth quaked

I haven't felt like this for ages
I cannot help but thinking of the Endless times we spend in line
That was before the earth quaked

I could see the lines on your face
And your green eyes turn to grey
But I will never see a reason
I should ever go away
You could feel me drive into places
Still unknown until the day
I saw your innocence deceasing
Like a flower in the drain

Was it the scent, the smile on your face
Was it your silky skin, your fluffy hair
Around your neck that made me feel
We were about to earthquake

I guess I walked the air, out of mind
Forgot about the clerk, the change and
Drowned into the pools of your green eyes
We were about to earthquake

I could see the lines on your face
(I saw you - I saw your face)
And your green eyes turn to grey
(I saw you - I saw your face)
But I will never see a reason
(I saw you - I saw your face)
I should ever go away
(I saw you take my breath away)
You could feel me drive into places
(I saw you - I saw your face)
Still unknown until the day face
(I saw you - I saw your face)
I saw your innocence deceasing
(I saw you - I saw your face)
Like a flower in the drain
(I saw you take my breath away)

Forever

Why don't you see, this pain lasts forever?
We would be living together apart. We wouldn't go far
We would never be able to cope with, the ones that we are
So let us be what we shall be
Forever

Sometimes I'm sad and I cry and I wish it would rain
Sometimes when I see despair in your eyes and you need someone to help you get over the pain
Though I try to hold on to my dreams
Of a world without anger and fear
Its so hard to believe we'll be saved from whats going on

Here in my realm I allow you to tell me your needs here is the peace that you seek. When you bleed
From the wounds you take from living the life you beseech
Did I tell you I knew all along?
Don't you think there is some kind of truth in it,
Wasn't it you who walked out on me, wasn't that you?

Why don't you see that this pain lasts forever?
We would be living together apart. For we wouldn't go far
We would never be able to cope with the ones that we are
So let us be what we shall be
Forever

Sometimes I'd like you to die, cause it drives me insane
There's a whole lot of china broken, But I'm not the one to take over the blame
And you knew that we had our chance
Couldn't live with or without one another
I guess we'd be better off dead then together

See You in Heaven

Here I come - trouble is my name
Chaos is my father - but I'm not to blame
I am only a human disaster in need of affection

You're the one - you're twice as much insane
I'd be happy if you'd only let me watch over you
I don't need to be touched in the first place

Life - I knew I couldn't cope with Life - I knew I couldn't deal with Life
Nothing changes but life's not the same anymore

I will see you in heaven
I am on my own
All alone with a
Heart like concrete

I will see you in heaven
There's no need to cry
But I know that it
Feels like hell inside

I am a failure - at least I'm your man
I promised you nothing - so don't be surprised
When I tell you that all I have planned
Never more than illusions

It'll be like it always has been
You are the one that looks after me when I have no one to trust or to turn to
In my weirdest nightmares

Too weak to handle what happened
And what lies ahead
Life is relentless and I'd rather wish I was dead
Although the world keeps spinning 'round
I fall
I thought I could fly - but I'm back now

Rain

I don't want to be misunderstood
In case you're worried - I'm sad
But I don't mean you no harm

It's just that I don't want to be fucked
By anybody - at least
Not by a miserable tart

Like you - I don't remember saying
Something like I resign
To someone else's desire

With every second spent on the thought
You may have ruined my life
I'd rather wrap you in wire

Suddenly the rain is falling down on me
And I see clearly
Finally your love for me has gone
If there was some

So what gives you the right to just go
And leave me freaking alone
Is it really so hard

For you to keep on living with me
Like we were having such fun
You are dependent on me

I can't allow you moving around
And getting any ideas
You better stay where you are

Until you're tired o'hugs and kisses
We are gonna have a good time
Keeping up family ties

Too Emotional

You're a dish, a honey, baby
But I guess you must've known, for sure
We were trying to save the world
We were about to light upon the final cure

Build like in a schoolboy's dream
You got the power to make dreams come true
With your symmetry and size
You burst all seams
Breaking the hearts behind the screens
That bleed for you

I'm sorry - I did upset
You didn't get the story
I wrote you love-letters instead
I didn't mean to hurt you
Maybe we are too emotional
Too much heart too hard to handle

Can't ya hear the choir's chant
They'll make you sing when they catch you
Take a hike and take a dive
Stay below, hold your breath
Til your lips turn blue

I'm sorry - I did upset
You didn't get the story
I wrote you love-letters instead
I didn't mean to hurt you
Maybe we are too emotional
Too much heart too hard to handle
Can't hide my tears from you
Maybe we are too emotional
Too much hard too hard to handle

Late - whenever I awake
Whenever I try to escape
I want to run, but I am getting nowhere
Back - began to realize
Shook off the ghosts and all the sorrows
Bothering my mind
I left them all behind

Vorbei

Du hast mich lang genug verspottet und gedemütigt mein Kind
Du hast mir oft genug gezeigt, dass meine Träume wertlos sind
Ich habe dir vertraut, du hast mich nur enttäuscht
Hab nicht erkannt, dass du der Sand bist
Der durch meine Finger rinnt

In deinen Augen hab ich grenzenlose Leidenschaft gesehen
In deinen Armen habe ich geglaubt, du würdest mich verstehen
Der frische Tau auf deinen Lippen
Ließ vor Sehnsucht mich vergehen
Du hast mich nur benutzt, doch ich hab dir verziehen

Es ist vorbei
Ich habe viel zu lang' geglaubt
Es gibt nur dich oder die Einsamkeit
Und dich zu spät durchschaut
Es ist vorbei
Zu lange hab ich mir erträumt
Dass du die eine bist, die zu mir hält
Doch leider weißt du nicht was wirklich zählt

Ich will nie wieder deinen Augenaufschlag sehen
Nie wieder deine Haut auf meiner spüren
Und deinen Herzschlag hören
Deine verheißungsvollen Blicke haben mich so oft betört
Zu lange hast du mich nur ausgelacht
Und meinen Stolz zerstört

Es ist vorbei
Ich habe viel zu lang' geglaubt
Es gibt nur dich oder die Einsamkeit
Und dich zu spät durchschaut
Es ist vorbei
Zu lange hab ich mir erträumt
Dass du die eine bist, die zu mir hält
Doch leider weißt du nicht was wirklich zählt

The Only Fool

Why do you smile at me
As if I were an imbecile
I did not ask for your compassion
I never needed those brilliant ideas of yours
You seem so cunning after all
But all you do is make a fool of me
But you don't see
The only fool is you

One fine day
All the world's written absurdities will burn
I'm afraid
That the anger in our hearts is here to stay
One fine day
All the world's written absurdities will
Burn
And I watch you with a smile upon my face

People do disagree
It is a natural effect
Of having different opinions
As long as those who argue show respect
But you
Do have no dignity at all
You'll live to witness our ascension
And soon you'll wish
The lies you told were true
