Hall of Mirrors

An echo in this empty space
Out of nothing into something
We hear the music play
Riding to where we want to be
From will to the mountains sudden rain
How can the the song remains the same
You only know once you let it go

And as we watch the city
Captured by the winter light
Dreams of a purple light
Of the songs that a mother would sing
And as the ghost in the mirror fades
It leaves me empty at the door
Strong as it begins to change
Goodbye winter goodbye rain

So catch your breath to make it through
Drift wherever the wind may blow
As all is now one voice
The trail that leads right back at you
Tired but still not broken
With no words left unspoken
You will only know
Once you let it go

And as we watch the city
Captured by the winter light
Dreams of a purple light
Of the songs that a mother would sing
And as the ghost in the mirror fades
It leaves me empty at the door
Strong as it begins to change
So goodbye winter goodbye rain

Soundwave (extended)

So if this is your heart
If this is your soul
With nothing to exclude
Or nothing to impose
If willing's not enough
Then we must do
As an image of you
And an image of me

Like a broken promise
Once a soothing voice
But now the signal gets lost
In the noise
From the highest of towers
To the valleys down below
Just to feed the machine

This kind you and me
We move effortlessly
Through a golden sea
As if it's meant to be
Just let the dancing waves
Take us all the way
As an image of you

So if this is your heart
If this is your soul

Like a broken promise
In the noise

Emotional Content

From moment to moment
You must go beyond
The moment is freedom
Just think and observe
When you have no form
You can be all
Breath with the decay
Or move away

Establish the groove
Contract or expand
Move with stillness
Rethink and observe
Establish the groove
Contract or expand
Move with stillness
Rethink and observe

You
You mix it up as you move along
To get the least amount of noise
It's up to you
Even before it starts
Or move away

Establish the groove
Contract or expand
Move with stillness
Rethink and observe
Establish the groove
Contract or expand
Move with stillness
Rethink and observe

The Void

I remember the blue sky
I remember the clouds
Like a voice that carries when it's cold
You left me drifting in time
Sweet surrender give me your wisdom
Achieving stillness as I move

It's like the bravest souls keep calling
Without words to explain
It's just the way I feel
No matter where I go you keep calling
Cos as you broke the silence
You opened my eyes

Do not run
Let go
Do not seek
For it will find you
Behind every motion
There's a glimpse of your soul
In all your heavenly glory
Maintaining stillness as you move

It's like the bravest souls keep calling
Without words to explain
No matter where I go you keep calling
Cos as you broke the silence
You opened my eyes

No matter where I go
You keep calling
And with your broken rhythm
You opened my eyes

Let It Sing

She says nothing is going on
That it's one of those things
That the sun came out last night
Just to sing
I've never been here before
But I'll be heading out tonight
Don't know what I will find
I guess it's one of those things

Note for note just let it sing
If you're inside just let it in
Note for note just let it sing
If you're inside just let it in

She says nothing is going on
That the sun came out last night
Just to sing
I've never been here before

Note for note just let it sing
Note for note just let it sing

Note for note just let it sing
Note for note just let it sing
If you're inside just let it in
Note for note just let it sing
If you're inside just let it in
Note for note just let it sing
If you're inside just let it in

Deceiver

At the end of the night
The silence is loud
Glowing red eyes
Watching you go
Like shade on a sunny day
To silently let you know
They left a spell on you
To keep you from home

With every beat of your heart
Calling out your name in the dark
And as you wander through this maze
They might know
Where you want to go

And with this key
You unlock the mystery
With the wisdom they provide
Another memory comes alive
When you got the glow
Your body is gold
Her eyes as a guiding light
Taking notes of what you find

With every beat of your heart
They might know
Where you want to go

With every beat of your heart
They might know

Spellbound

Just like waves
On the ocean
Still far from home
Frequencies evolved in similar ways
Still holding on

Stay here with me
Still holding on
Stay
With me
Still holding on
Stay here
With me

Just like waves
On the ocean
The breathing in and out
As ambience arrive
A promise we once made
Under the sea of stars

Stay here with me
With me
Stay here
With me

Reflections

Realization starts to dawn
Words are energy
As the mind reflects
Moving but still

So goodbye frozen smiles
Bless the sun and the moon
As the mind reflects

Cos running water never goes stale
They say
You live by moving
And gain strength as you go
Your way
Cos running water never goes stale
They say
You live by moving
Your way

Let it pan out or make it loud
You are energy
Go seek the void
To gain totality

So goodbye frozen smiles
Creating opportunities
Bending with the wind

Cos running water never goes stale
They say
You live by moving
They say
You live by moving

Shine On

You have to be a light to yourself, in a world that is impossibly becoming dark

Shine on...

You have to be a light to yourself

You have to be a light to yourself

You have to be a light to yourself
