Lost in You

Sexual attraction
Though it makes me blind
And I can feel the softness
That really makes you kind
Don't go away, please stay today
Don't hide your face, but see me pray

You're the light that shows the way
Also when I drift away

Also when I drift away
Because I'm lost in you
Lost in you
Because I'm lost in you again
Lost in you

And though I hear your breath again
Close to my ears
And though I feel your...

Sexual attraction...
You're the light...
You're the light...
You're the light...

Circulate

You, you say a word to me
You like what makes me see
I want to give myself to you
I must find a way
A way to make you stay
I need you here today
'Cause I really want to love you now
Please don't let me pray

Though you let me down again and again
I can feel your cold heart's flame
I lost my self in you
In you

I say hello to you
Your blossom makes me blue
Yes, I really want to hurt you now Say you want me to

Someone is trying to tear us apart
Trust can be broken by one word
Spoken words are hard to hide
Spoken words are hard to hide

But when we trust in eachothers heart
It's a lack of confidence
A lack of confidence

Circulate, circulate, circulate
I circulate in your arms

Circulate...
Circulate...
Circulate...

If We Should Ignore This

What will be left over
If we should ignore the dirty air again
If we should ignore the danger in the land

Don't look away now
Let them live in peace and try to understand
Don't look away now
Let us stay here, take them by your hands

And one day
We have to explain
The world full of pain
It will never be the same again

But now it's not too late
'Cause they have named the day
To rescue our world from pain
More than once I hear them say
That it's nowhere near enough
There is more than that I knew two words
Through ignorance
It's time for you to go

Don't look away now
If we should ignore the dirty air again
Don't look away now
If we should ignore the dangers in our land
Don't look away now
Let them live in piece and try to understand
Don't look away now

Don't look away...

Melody of Your Face

Tell me the words I'm waiting for
At this moment
Tell me your thoughts I'm crying for
At this moment

Show me your face I'm searching for
In every moment
And let me forget all these moments of pain

Try to explain the words you say
And reward me
Find the reason to go on
With this behavior
Keep your distance to my thoughts
They will hurt you
And let me forget all these moments of pain

The melody of your face
The melody of your face
The melody of your face

Sing me the melody of your face
The melody of your face?

Desertland

They fall down to pray again
They don't want to stay in the land
Enough time is passed in minds

Take them home again
Back to mothers' fears (?fist)

They have to go
To a strange land
Where they die

The children not at home
The mothers cry for their sons

They have to go
To a strange land
Where they die?

What I Feel

You, you stay at home tonight
And hide your face again
Why don't you look at me
You, you don't see what I feel
I try to laugh about it
Don't you know that I bleed again

You, can't you see what I feel
I want you by my side
You are against the same pain
Why you?

You, you can not hide that thought (?)
You are afraid and I know
That you will see my face
Hear the words I say
And your dreams again

You haven't got the time (?)
You haven't got the time
You haven't got the time?

You, you can't you see what I feel
Can't you see what I feel?

The Gold of the Poor

The blue sky over them
The shadows of the men
They press a trail in the sand
Running as fast as they can

They're running through the desert sun
Meshing guns in their hands
The soldier's pack is on their back
Once our wagon tramps

More than you can say
More than you can feel

No, they will never go away
It's too late to change their minds
They only would do the same again
Until the end they will fight

More than you can say
More than you can feel?

A Word in Season

Into Another World

The million words which confuse me
I can't explain what they mean
They tell a strange kind of story
Ridiculous and wrong at all

Try to run away
Hide your face
Escape just for a while
Take me with you

Don't misunderstand its meaning
Possibly you might be sad
And for a while you're dreaming
You're sleeping in your bed

Try to run away
Take me with you
