God Is Blind

You can't run away From the lord's eternal game Eat the dust And kiss the book Taste the wine of brotherhood

I don't want to hear the story Of someone who lost his glory Can you feel it too Can you feel it too

I released myself from your grip
On my life
You lost all of your infallibility
Now, we're standing here
The more we have the less we give Foul discord
Is what he sent
God is blind in the end

We Fly... Tonight

I teach you a lesson I know something beautiful Let me gratify your passion I call this fashion

You'll enjoy the labour There is no need to regret Will you grant the ultimate favour? There is no failure...

We fly... unto the end of time... Tonight... We try to get high one more time... Tonight... We fly... unto the end of time... Tonight... Don't cry... this love won't be denied... Tonight... Tonight!

Overcome resistance There is something beautiful We can summon into existence We kill the distance...

Something you cannot measure Can we ever get enough? No we never pall with pleasure We hold a treasure...

We fly... until the end of time... Tonight... We try to get high one more time... Tonight... We fly... until the end of time... Tonight... Don't cry... the stuff won't be denied... Tonight... Tonight!

We Might Be One for a Day

I may well be satisfied Stay a while Sweet little child Taste some of the poisoned fume Leave this world Enrich this room

We might be one for a day Angels take Our souls away Reaching heights, we won't get caught Gods lend wings To tainted hearts

Feel the pain deep inside From your head to your feet From the left to the right But noone loves

When we earn all lover's pay Father, hide My love away Searching for an alibi Listen to Your spirit's eye

Feel the pain deep inside From your head to your feet From the left to the right

But no one loves and no one knows

Strange Affection

Give me your bright white eyes That I might see The blindness of a narrow-minded flea We cannot bridge the distance Don't get too close to me

How deep must you fall down To understand That selfishness is always built on sand Waiting for the impact You got nothing to defend

I'm happy with you, happy with you night and day I'm feeling with you, bleeding with you Anyway I can see no reaction It's a strange affection

I'm serving you, I'm serving you As a prey I'm leaving you, deceiving you Not today I can feel no reaction What a strange affection

I'm trapped within a maze
Of lies and fake
Don't have the strength to speak, to fight or hate
I hang in doubt, my head is cramped
Why did we seek the end

I'm happy with you, happy with you night and day I'm feeling with you, bleeding with you Anyway I can see no reaction It's a strange affection

I'm serving you, I'm serving you As a prey I'm leaving you, deceiving you Today I can feel no reaction What a strange affection

Deliver Me

Listen to the night
Take delight in this tune
A symphony of cries
Howling at the moon

Illuminate the wide Hugeness of my heart The corridor inside I surely have to walk

Deliver me tonight
And please don't ever let me go
Heaven has arrived
But don't let anybody know
You're water to my seeds
I think I felt something alive
Answer to my needs
And heaven knows it will be right

Hear Me Calling

Can't you hear me calling?

Can't you hear me calling? Can't you see I'm falling?

I believe in your heart Can you believe in me? Would you try me out one day When Our souls are free?

I can taste your sweetness I am out of control Leave my mind if you don't stay You decompose my soul...

Can't you hear me calling Longing for a calm Can't you see I'm falling Soon I'll come to harm can't you feel my yearning For your charity Can't you see I'm burning Till our souls are free

Waiting for an answer I'm waiting for a sign I do not understand these feelings Hope you're feeling fine

Can't you hear me calling...

Hear me calling...

Back in My Life

Back in my life
I used to be so happy
Don't ask me why
I became so ugly
Go back in time
And try to find the answer
But don't hope to find
What is now out of time
All I see is a stranger who died

Out of the blue
You break into the silence
And all that we need me and you
Is spiritual guidance
Now I can see
Our love was always dying
And today I regret
All the joy that we had
All I feel is emptiness instead

I used to be so happy I used to be so happy I used to be so happy Now it's gone, so long

Turn of the tide
I feel it coming back to me
Made up my mind
You will never be close to me
Back in my life
I used to be so happy
Now I'm breaking the back
Of what is breaking my neck
All I want is tenderness instead

Slaves to Passion

Will you ever find the answer? Will you never touch the ground? You do gladly feed your Cancer Do you hope to drag me down?

Hear my Words, feel my Hurt Can't you see we're meant to be Slaves to Passion; Servants to Fashion That's the way that we want to be

Hear my Words, feel my Hurt Can't you see we're meant to be Slaves to Passion; Sense the Fashion That's the way that we want to be

If I ever need a brother I know I'll find a brother in me Do you sometimes need a sister? Something you will never be...

Hear my Word, feel my Hurt Can't you see we're meant to be Slaves to Passion; Sense the Fashion That's the way that we want to be

Drifter

Loneliness calls you
Push the teenage dreams aside
Tonight
Open the door to Chase away the demon from your mind
Reality bores you
Go on clinging to this fool's
Paradise
Feelings don't reach you
Worn out like the girl that drowns
In lies

I cannot believe you All the words you say (Me) myself won't be the same I won't play the clown for you Every single day (Me) myself won't be the same

Someone adores you Little girl don't hide before His eye You're drifting out to Find a place beyond the rain And cry

Heart of Stone

I never thought I find my way
Out of yesterday
Time really passed me by
But now I need to concentrate On the steps I take
I try, I fail, I try...
Now I'm searching in my memory, in my memory
For the man I used to be
I'm searching in my memory, in my memory
For the man I want to see

A heart of stone Unhappy soul Believe me, it doesn't hurt My god he said Don't be afraid Don't you cry cause it won't be heard

I hope I'll ever find my way Out of nowadays My time is standing still I guess I only celebrate Every move I make We're aching for the thrill

Now I'm searching in my memory, in my memory For the boy I used to be I'm searching in my memory, in my memory For the boy I feel in me

New Drug

I lost my sight when I got stun I never bleeded so Do I slide into vice Till I'm gone?

You're like a dive into the wild Like poems holding me as gentle as a new born child at night

Then sorrow breaks
The silent spell
My mind is clearing up
And takes me back
Into my shell
Back to hell

I hope you
Won't see me through
Like I do
I can't get
You out of my mind
I see still I'm blind
I hope you
Like I do
I can't get
Me out of this hug
Just be my new drug
