Deeper and Deeper

It's a painful reality
I am my own worst enemy
Shocked in shock!
Damn, when will I be free?

Deeper and deeper
Deeper and deeper
Deeper and deeper

This feeling will make me mad
Does not get out of my head
It has settled in my brain
Makes me stupid and insane

Deeper and deeper
Deeper and deeper
Deeper and deeper
Deeper and deeper
Deeper and deeper
Deeper and deeper
Deeper and deeper

No Matter

The one on the top crashes way deeper
The other has a new opportunity
The world is more than luxury goods
Life is merciless and mean

No matter what you do
No matter where you are
No matter what happens
No matter where you go
You feel it in Your lungs
You take life as it comes
No matter what you do
No matter where you go

Two people in each other's way one must sidestep
He's crushed on the ground
Others appear again and again and again with him
Used to the madness

No matter what you do
No matter where you are
No matter what happens
No matter where you go
You feel it in Your lungs
You take life as it comes
No matter what you do
No matter where you go

One sits amid life's dreams that have burst
While the other floats in gold
There are moments when you hope to be making a comeback
And one hour later you lose sight

No matter what you do
No matter where you are
No matter what happens
No matter where you go
You feel it in Your lungs
You take life as it comes
No matter what you do

No matter where you go
No matter what you do
No matter where you are
No matter what happens

No matter where you go
You feel it in your lungs
You take life as it comes
No matter what you do
No matter where you go

We Don't Care

Awareness strikes suddenly
And leave us all to wonder
Like that moment of silence
Between lightning and thunder

Ignorance is bliss
We rather close our eyes
Consciousness' a gift
We still choose to deny

It's all about ourselves
We don't care no we don't care
Until it is too late
We don't care no we don't care
It's all about ourselves
We don't care no we don't care
Until it is too late
We don't care no we don't care

Blind to the world
We refuse and reject
Our conscience dead cold
What else did we expect?

When worse comes to worst
We look the other way
Our needs come always first
It's just the game we play

It's all about ourselves
We don't care no we don't care
Until it is too late
We don't care no we don't care
It's all about ourselves
We don't care no we don't care
Until it is too late
We don't care no we don't care

Our backs against the wall
We're forced to witness
How our reckless call
Destroys all that matters

It's all about ourselves
We don't care no we don't care
Until it is too late
We don't care no we don't care
It's all about ourselves
We don't care no we don't care
Until it is too late
We don't care no we don't care

No we don't care
No we don't care
No we don't care

It's all about ourselves
We don't care no we don't care
Until it is too late
We don't care no we don't care

Grim Reaper

Let me roam the world
Far from this ghostly place
Here I am I don't want to be here
Watch as I shiver with fear

The scent of the sea blows from the beach
And a terrible dream is within reach
The cold winds tell a creepy story
About a singing mermaid wild and hoary

Fear and dread should not worry
Tell the grim reaper not to hurry
Even if you feel like you're in front of a hangman jury
Tell the grim reaper not to hurry

The ice is melting but my heart is freezing
I'd like to be somewhere else
I just want to sail on the northern sea
Oh my fate stay with me

Fear and dread should not worry
Tell the grim reaper not to hurry
Even if you feel like you're in front of a hangman jury
Tell the grim reaper not to hurry

Fear and dread should not worry
Tell the grim reaper not to hurry
Even if you feel like you're in front of a hangman jury
Tell the grim reaper not to hurry

Oh release me from this captivity
I pay in silver and gold for my liberty

Lonely Like a Wolf

When grandfather told me the story
The nation still dreamed of the final victory
The white sniper roams through the night
In the dark his eyes glow like red light

Attracted by the full moon power
Scary and dangerous like a flamethrower
He hunted through the forrest so deep
Armed to the teeth lurking on the sheep

Lonely like a wolf you were a soldier in winter war
Lonely like a wolf you were called the white death
Lonely like a wolf fighting in the winter war
Lonely like a wolf a deadly shot from afar

The sky was dotted with stars
As many as men in hundreds of wars
Cold thick fog it was bitterly cold
Everyone heard how the wolf howled

Lonely like a wolf you were a soldier in winter war
Lonely like a wolf you were called the white death
Lonely like a wolf fighting in the winter war
Lonely like a wolf a deadly shot from afar

Lonely like a wolf you were a soldier in winter war
Lonely like a wolf you were called the white death
Lonely like a wolf fighting in the winter war
Lonely like a wolf a deadly shot from afar

A deadly shot from afar

Too Late

I dive into the state you call pure life
I wish I'd rather be on avalon
Your speeches as long as an infinite line I can't define
But if you are silent I understand this is violent

Now it's too late far too late
Far too late to turn around
Now it's too late far too late
The life you are looking for can't be found

My fear is great and makes me choke like in a cloud of smoke
I have forgotten to see the facts of life supposedly it is rife
Deceived by Illusions then sad conclusions
Next comes the burnout no clear thoughts I think I fall out

Now it's too late far too late
Far too late to turn around
Now it's too late far too late
The life you are looking for can't be found

Now it's too late far too late
Far too late to turn around
Now it's too late far too late
The life you are looking for can't be found

Greetings From Far Away

With every heartbeat with every breath I feel good
By the landscape and by quiet natures understood
I want to feel the longing for an eagle to fly away
I spread my wings and fly every single day

Greetings from far away from far away
Even if I can't be with you I think of you
Greetings from far away from far away
I have to think of you every day

I want to sit on high mountains and stare into the distance
I would give everything to my whole existence
To be happy and feel the warm sun on my body
I give it to you give it to him I give it to everyone

Greetings from far away from far away
Even if I can't be with you I think of you
Greetings from far away from far away
I have to think of you every day

Even if I can't be with you I think of you
I have to think of you every day

Journey of Oblivion

When I slowly close my eyes
It becomes more and more blurred
Thoughts flow like on a highway
Until my head is empty
Time passes rapidly by
Short moments do not seem to exist
And if I try to think back
I don't remember

I approach a man-eating city
All my thoughts come to kill without a pity
I thought that we are even
And I'm on the journey of oblivion
I thought that we are even
On the journey of oblivion

Sky hides under grey blanket
Rain is pouring down
I drive without destination
I look into the mirror
I don't know where the road is leading
My thoughts are a wreck
And I think to myself
What happened should I go back?

I approach a man-eating city
All my thoughts come to kill without a pity
I thought that we are even
And I'm on the journey of oblivion
I thought that we are even
On the journey of oblivion

I don't know where the road is leading
I drive without destination
And I think to myself
What happened should I go back?

I approach a man-eating city
All my thoughts come to kill without a pity
I thought that we are even
And I'm on the journey of oblivion
I thought that we are even
On the journey of oblivion

And Nothing Turns (extended)

Eternity begins I think back
I am grateful for time thankful for happiness
The emptiness you miss is it worse?
Loud screams are silenced forever

Life stands still and nothing turns
I look into the night and watch the sky
I only think of you and it burns
And nothing turns and nothing turns

Your breath is missing no leaf in the wind
Just laughed happily as a child
The time comes early for everything
When the end comes the past lives

Life stands still and nothing turns
I look into the night and watch the sky
I only think of you and it burns
And nothing turns and nothing turns
(And nothing turns)

My heart is broken the farewell hurts
I realize how precious every moment was
In thought standing in front of me
Please stay here please dont let me down

Life stands still and nothing turns
I look into the night and watch the sky
I only think of you and it burns
And nothing turns and nothing turns
(And nothing turns)

Life stands still and nothing turns
I look into the night and watch the sky
I only think of you and it burns
And nothing turns and nothing turns
(And nothing turns)

(And nothing turns)
Life stands still and nothing turns
I look into the night and watch the sky

Ich steh mit den Füßen im Sand
Halte dein Herz in meiner Hand
Gemeißelt ins Herz dein letztes Wort
Ich hoffe ich sehe dich an einem anderen Ort

Back Home

Feels like I'm alone feels like I'm on my own
All my world is pale no friends no mail
I just step along all these streets of the dark
Yearning for a spark to brighten up my heart
If you still care if you're still there
Feel there's something there I feel you in the air
Don't leave me alone no you no Home
I try to find my way back home through these streets of the dark
Yearning just for you to take hold of my heart

If you still care if you're still there

Lead me my way back home
If you still care I believe you're still there

Opposites Collide

From an ocean of fire
Came the coldest of cold
And whatever you had
It was there now it's gone
The dance of ice and fire
So beautiful and dreadful
When opposites collide
In one eternal night

So distant yet so close
First enemies then spouse
Too different still alike
Divergent yet allied
So distant yet so close
First enemies then spouse
Too different still alike
Divergent yet allied

And now it's hard to tell
Light from dark right from wrong
And whatever you had
It was there now it's gone
In such powerful duplicity
Lies the beauty of the world
The undeniable chemistry
Of the calm before the storm

So distant yet so close
First enemies then spouse
Too different still alike
Divergent yet allied
So distant yet so close
First enemies then spouse
Too different still alike
Divergent yet allied

So distant yet so close
First enemies then spouse
Too different still alike
Divergent yet allied
Yet allied
So distant yet so close
First enemies then spouse
Too different still alike
Divergent yet allied
Yet allied
So distant yet so close
First enemies then spouse
Too different still alike
Divergent yet allied
Yet allied

White Sheet (Kryothermalversion)

A white sheet lies on my desk in front of me
The words I want to write don't come to mind
I know you're not going to read this letter
I actually just wanted to tell you I miss you

Can you see us hand in hand?
Something you'd better understand
When you join forces with another
We can't touch we can't touch each other

I look around sadly as if you had taken the sun with you
Anytime anywhere I'm reminded of you
Now that I need you the most you're not there
Damn I miss you you left me so fast

Can you see us hand in hand?
Something you'd better understand
When you join forces with another
We can't touch we can't touch each other

Can you see us hand in hand?
Something you'd better understand
When you join forces with another
We can't touch we can't touch each other

When you join forces with another
We can't touch we can't touch each other
