Hearts

We both together forever and ever
You are the wind and I am the sea
They turn around to take a final peek
And you see why it's so unique

By your breath I am carried
By my blood you're nourished
You're my land and I am your flood
Take my hand and take my blood

Separated by summer and winter
Two hearts with only one goal
We're together and yet alone
The world is grey and hard like a stone

With all their words with loud voices
They search for a meaning
But it will remain hidden from them
Cool is the way we are feeling

By your breath I am carried
By my blood you're nourished
You're my land and I am your flood
Take my hand and take my blood

Separated by summer and winter
Two hearts with only one goal
We're together and yet alone
The world is grey and hard like a stone

Götter in Weiss

Wir haben gottgleiche Macht
Retten Leib und Leben mit all unserer Kraft
Im Konflikt zwischen Ethos und Zwang
Bis zur Erschöpfung bis zum Untergang

Medikamente gegen Schmerzen
Versuchen Krankheiten auszumerzen
Hohes Risiko harter Klinik-Alltag
Oft auch ein hölzerner Sarg

Auf Messers Schneide steht jedes Leben
Fehler werden nicht zugegeben
Keine Haftung sie zahlen nie den Preis
Denn sie sind Götter in weiß

Licht und Dunkel Leben und Tod
Wer ist allwissend wer der Fachidiot
In unendlichen Welten und hohen Weiten
Wer ist unzählbar in diesen harten Zeiten

Blender oder unsterblicher Gott
Vom Ehrgeiz getrieben um das ewige Leben
Im täglichen Kampf um Ruhm und Macht
Wie verstorbene Seelen die wandeln in der Nacht

Auf Messers Schneide steht jedes Leben
Fehler werden nicht zugegeben
Keine Haftung sie zahlen nie den Preis
Denn sie sind Götter in weiß

Lost My Mind

When my head is empty
And no ONE is there for me
It's like poison in my body
That drives me to death

I can't take what I want
I take what I get
It's only a small gift
But it's enough to keep me alive

Remember when you wanted to show me the world
Where would we go?
I don't know anymore because I forgot
Where should I go?

I'm writing and suddenly
I'm without a plan
Overnight I forgot all
I had planned to do

I used to be strong and free
But now I know
That nothing remains
At the end of my life

Remember when you wanted to show me the world
Where would we go?
I don't know anymore because I forgot
Where should I go?

King of the Cold

I dream every night that I am the king of the cold
With a crown so white shining from ICE and gold
The naked maids with white hair dance around me
And make me dream of the splendor of eternal time

I am the king of the cold my life is silver and gold
I am the king of the cold and I will fight for my might
I am the king of the cold above me, endless space unfurled
I am the king of the cold and rule my own world

I dream every night that I am the king of the cold
With a robe adorned with glass and diamonds
They bring me food wine and wives all day long
God doesn't call it treason doesn't call it wrong

I am the king of the cold my life is silver and gold
I am the king of the cold and I will fight for my might
I am the king of the cold above me, endless space unfurled
I am the king of the cold and rule my own world

All My Life

It's not life if you only experience cold
It's not a life to just grow old
Roaming through life without feeling warmth
To die in the icy cold high north

It's not life if you only suffer pain
You give something up for everything you gain
It's not a life never doing your own thing
No limit to the amount of trouble life can bring

It's not a life to just live into the day
It's not a life to ask always only for the way
It's not a life if you only compromise
You can see the anger burning in your eyes

I am searching
I am ready
I am ready and prepared for the battle
I am ready
I am searching
I've been searching for meaning all my life

Sad Lonesome Day

It's so loud in my head from your words
They burn in deep like a million chords
It feels like I'm riding a roller coaster
Every day the feeling comes closer

ONE thought is all it takes
On a sad lonesome day
When is it time
To make up for my mistakes?
My pain will never go away
On a sad lonesome day

I can't hear my own confused thoughts
I feel such pressure my mind is in knots
I can't trust my mind it's such a liar
Take me far up higher and higher

ONE thought is all it takes
On a sad lonesome day
When is it time
To make up for my mistakes?
My pain will never go away
On a sad lonesome day

Dark Life

Hear your voice
Calling out for me
Feel your breath
On my cold skin

See your eyes shining
Like embers in the fire
Under the red sky
I feel like a ghost

I hear screams
That hurt my ears
I'm getting ready
For the worst

My thoughts burned
To the ground
I walk right
Into a trap

Early in the dewy morning we're born
And in the evening we are empty and lost
Tomorrow's morning seems so far away
But the night also turns back into day

Never Before

Work in Progress

When I Fall

It is what you see!
It is what you feel!
It is what you think!
It is what you must!
Time crushes US with all its power to decide
No escape but we have god on our side

It is what you know!
It is what you can do!
It is what you want!
It is what you believe!
We are LED in the battle of good against evil
We will kiss the angel and spit on the devil

Dark times
Evil times
Cold times
Hard times
We must decide what to do with the time we're given

Give me light when I have no ONE
Give me strength when I have none
Give me a compass when I am on a journey
Give me hope when I stand still
(and love when I fall)

If All This Is True

When you fall into misfortune
And your life almost fades away
When suddenly the world turns upside down
And you don't know why it happens

You think about what was different before
Indistinct whispers everywhere
You don't understand anything
Now you realize it's coming to an end

Do you miss the life
That was hard for you?
Do you long for the love
That eluded you?

What if all this is true?
It's so easy to separate black from white
What if all this is true?
It's not easy to separate wrong from right

It's so easy to separate black from white
But not wrong from right

Gott des Feuers

Aus tausenden Metern Tiefe steigt glühend Lava auf
Wessen Schicksal nimmt an diesem Tag seinen Lauf
Die Erde scheint zu sterben auch wenn sie sich weiterdreht
Der Mensch rennt in sein Verderben wohin er auch flieht

Schwer wie Blei die Luft aus ihren Tiefen
Das Unglück kam während wir schliefen

Tanz auf dem Vulkan
Feuersäulen in der Nacht
Tanz auf dem Vulkan
Der Morgen kommt
doch er bringt keinen tag

Dunkel werden die Wolken es kann das Ende sein
Nur ein kleines Licht in der Ferne auch noch so klein

Schwer wie Blei die Luft aus ihren Tiefen
Das Unglück kam während wir schliefen
