Irony

Hey these may be the final words
We may ever get to say
So let's not worry about small regrets
It's too late for that anyway

Hey you eternal optimist
Have you still not had enough?
No place left to hang your trust
Shattered illusions fade to dust

If you could show me a true sign
That shining light that leads me down
A path I'd been in search of former life
I never saw but should have known

Hey you melancholy clown
Tell me how the story ends
Will it become another tragic tale or nothing left here to retent

An ironic twist of fate
Has carried you so far away
Yet I search the gray tomorrow
And wonder where you've gone
Some doors are better left unopened
Some things are better left unseen
Once you set it all in motion
Things will never be the same

Never be the same

Crossroads

I see you standing at the shore of stony mountains cold and gray
Our thoughts collide my heart feels warm
We must awake before break of the day

Remember moments left behind
Like stormy seas swept time away
These memories so safe and sound
We must awake before break of the day

Like shadows formed of a human lie and fragile words which seemed so wise no luring masks no cruel disguise
Redemption lies in between our soul

Imagine twilight clouds and shame undoubtful dreams no hope in sight
We'll pass our way but leave no strain
Redemption lies in between our soul

Again she fled, left me behind
With nothing but sadness on my mind
Again she fled, left me behind
With nothing but sadness on my mind

Around the corner it may wait
Another lucky call of fate
I saw it passing by today
Tomorrow you will cross my way

I'll take the secret path that run
Towards a devastating sun
To reach the place my dreams have shown
That will disclose to us alone

When winter's passed you'll sure be home
Your voice immortal in my head
All hope is gone I feel alone
We won't awake before break of the day

Your arms like silver shimmering
Embrace me with familiar warmth
Farewell to all I knew before
We won't awake before break of the day

Again she fled, left me behind
With nothing but sadness on my mind
Again she fled, left me behind
With nothing but sadness on my mind

Around the corner it may wait
Another lucky call of fate
I saw it passing by today
Tomorrow you will cross my way

I'll take the secret path that run
Towards a devastating sun
To reach the place my dreams have shown

That will disclose to us alone

Around the corner it may wait

Another lucky call of fate

I saw it passing by today

Tomorrow you will cross my way

I'll take the secret path that run

Towards a never lasting sun

To reach the place my dreams have shown

That will disclose to us alone

War/Flashbacks

In this room full of people
I am still ten thousand miles away
In the eye of my broken mind
I woke that night and cried out
I saw you running through the flames
I knew that you were gone forever

I've lain down my weapons
I'll take part in this no more
I turn my back to all of this
Though they stabbed me with the scorn
The choice was never mine to make
Why did it have to end up here

It is well that war is so terrible
Yet we seem to love it so
The eternal insane cycle
Can't we ever break it's toll
Do you hear these words when I cry out loud?
Never giving in your own free will
It is well that war is so terrible
'Cause only the dead have seen the end of war

I've seen the darkened anger
Steal the sight from searching eyes
The bloodstained flags and hollow words
It's how they keep us blind
The things I've seen
The things I've done
The ones I've killed will haunt me forever

Blood rushes to the ground
A widow weeps, there's no sadder sound
We go for darkness and despair
Imprisoned within my own mind
If all guns once were silenced
Would we have killed what was left inside?

It is well that war is so terrible
Yet we seem to love it so
The eternal insane cycle
Can't we ever break it's toll
Do you hear these words when I cry out loud?
Never giving in your own free will
It is well that war is so terrible
'Cause only the dead have seen the end of war

A Second of Life

Alive without breath
As cold as death
A heart like a stone
Never felt alone
She never felt alone
No feelings inside
Her lips never lied
No worries in mind
Not one of the kind
She was not one of the kind

She can't be seen
Can't be felt
Can't be heard
Can't be smelled

Never said any word
Flew away like a bird
Just a second of life
Until her time arrived

She left this world
Took her flight
Towards the rays of light
She cast warm sand
Over deep rivers
And withered land
She held my hand
My eyes grew dim
We watch death walk in
Where will she go?
Hang your prayers in the winds of the night

A Generation of the Lost

To those who suffer only loss
Who pay the hidden silent cost hide the scars and don't you tell
Another night of living hell

To those who turn their eyes away
Bring darkness to the light of day
Silenced by the awful shame
Hide from truth they pass the blame

I never guessed but should have known
If I had and done and done
Tell me why do we despise
Using words that cut like knives
Tear me down, expose beneath
A garden of thorns a mountain of grief
I've been through hell I'm moving on Staying there makes no difference at all

The isolation of our dreams
No one ever cares it seems
The city lights burn far below
Dying through to me on glow
I for one shall rise and leave
All behind those who deceive
Touch the clouds, let fall the rain
Down upon this world in flame
Crack the sky, flash in the night
Blackened shadows caressed in the light
The bow is drawn the arrow flies
The heart is pierced as all hope dies
If only we could still believe
And change the world to our own needs
But it's too late the lines are drawn
The moment fades, forever gone...

Can you feel the poison spread?
A generation of the lost
All our hopes have been misled
In generations we can't trust
Are we no one in your eyes?
A generation of the lost
Caught within your web of lies
A generation we can't trust

Home

Peaceful like an ocean before the storm
I am floating down the causeway
To the sound of a silent stream
In the middle of nowhere

Dancing inside my mind and in my head
She is moving like a flower
And the touch of her lips on mine
Another lonely departure

Migrate in the search for another place
Another dream to delve into
It's no good to hang behind
With your future at hand

Dominated by a force that is not mine
In the search of realistic tendencies
I'll return to this place again
To see your quivering body

And as our thoughts collide
I wish my self away
So far away
Into this haven
This corrupted place that we call home
I curse the moment that I left you a million times
For now I'm safe
For now I'm safe
But what about tomorrow?

Helpless we are lost inside ourselves
Chasing fake realities
Once your fate has turned around
Who will you turn to yourself?

Disillusioned I am breaking out of here
Leaving everything behind
Carry your smile within my heart
While I melt into the night

And as our thoughts collide
I wish my self away
So far away
Into this haven
This corrupted place that we call home
I curse the moment that I left you a million times
For now I'm safe
For now I'm safe
But what about tomorrow?

Unborn Faith

Hypocrite

Your smile once warm has turned so cold
Feel the fire fading
A house divided sure must fall
So let's unite here one and all

Tell me why we're waiting
Tell me what we're waiting for
Tell me why we're waiting

Alone a broken heart can't mend
Still we search how long it takes
Are we slaves to our own fears?
Break the silence, show your tears
All this fear leads us nowhere
Raise your hands and show you care
Beyond the hatred and the lies
Awaits the love we keep alive

The storm we ride the wind howls cold
Darkness that we sail in
Some distant light brings us to shore
Release these chains forever more

Tell me why we're waiting
Tell me what we're waiting for
Tell me why we're waiting

Alone a broken heart can't mend
Still we search how long it takes
Are we slaves to our own fears?
Break the silence, show your tears
All this fear leads us nowhere
Raise your hands and show you care
Beyond the hatred and the lies
Awaits the love we keep alive

Alone a broken heart can't mend
Are we slaves to our own fears?
All this fear leads us nowhere
Beyond the hatred and the lies
Awaits the love we keep alive

Alone a broken heart can't mend
Still we search how long it takes
Are we slaves to our own fears?
Break the silence, show your tears
All this fear leads us nowhere
Raise your hands and show you care
Beyond the hatred and the lies
Awaits the love we keep alive

Condense

You go while I stay
Watching the world turn inside out
Give me one last day
This last chance to say goodbye

I know you don't play
Saying it's my fault everytime
This is no hearsay
The truth smells so sweet tonight

The trace remains
A contrail in the sky

Let your rain fall down
Let your tempest fly
Let these clouds explode
And set the wheels on fire

I will trace you down
I can see your tears
I must change my mind
To give my life a meaning in the end

You always wanted
A fascinating way of life
Look what you've got now
I'm catching your dreams in return

The trace remains
A contrail in the sky

Let your rain fall down
Let your tempest fly
Let these clouds explode
And set the wheels on fire

I will trace you down
I can see your tears
I must change my mind
To give my life a meaning in the end
