Now or Never

As we have wandered thousand years through centuries of blood and pain I don't believe that god can feel our mere existence

Technology is who we serve as we kill by remote control we can not see and do not feel disaster is coming

It is time to know that it's now or never
There will never be another chance
What is wrong in doing things together
If you try to take another glance
Now that you've been tryin' so hard to get there
It would be a shame to just let go Nothing's gonna happen if you just stare
Wouldn't it be hard to never know

Is there no way to intervene to change belief of those who rule or do we really have to face our self-extinction

If he has ever been above then he must truly be asleep or we must pray for our souls that he is forgiving

Ignorance

Passing on the street
People that you meet

Hoping to forget
Sadness and regret

Hatred, you compete
Feeling incomplete

Never know who will be
The people that you see

I cannot understand you Could you please ignore what I've done
You don't seem to even believe me
On my knees, I hope you'd come back
To me

Ignorance is part of me
Ignorance made you leave me
Tolerance I did not give
Tolerance I did not live

Try to understand why things go out of hand

The colour of your eyes
Tell me all your lies

The same way you believe
You tell what people feel

No way to escape
Suspicion and your fate

I hope I fear
I have the same restraints like you
I see things clear
I wished that you could see that to
But if you leave
I will have no one to support
The things you give Are teaching tolerance to me

Ignorance is part of me
Ignorance made you leave me
Tolerance I did not give

Surviving

I am home
From my past leave my throne
How would I go on

I have found
My own way
To survive
This devastating game

Time will guide
Days will come
How could I
Be doing nothing wrong

And I'll be trying every day
Be looking for the words to say
I only want to know for sure
If I am able to adore
The reason going through all this
That there'd be still a world to miss
And I the final moment
To see this is true

Time to leave
Memories pass
I won't need
No one to say goodbye

When I change
Who will tell What has been
And what is going on

I hope to find Reasons for
The Me right now
And the one I was before

So I kept trying every day
Believed I found the words to say
But still had no one to assure
That things were better than before All reasoning would cease with this Why I would keep on seeking bliss
Until the final moment
Believed this was true

Guardian Angel

I am looking for my guardian angel
Someone who could be my star
To shine the way on which I'm walking Who can tell me where we are

I must admit that I am lost here
I wasn't meant to live this life
And even now as I am talking
I wished that you would soon arrive

My angel you are somewhere out there
I feel that you are watching me
But how long must I keep on hoping That you'd be coming down to me

The time I spent just waiting is filling me with joy
for powers to deploy
the time I spent just waiting
I feel you coming near
until I have you here

Trapped

Take me in
I am looking for cover
For a sin
They should never discover
And if you don't
They will all find out
What I only want you
To know about

Quiet now
I am so filled with cold fear
You know
That I really belong here
For many years
I was so in doubt
From what would happen
If you found out

The loneliest soul
Is trapped in this cover
The longing for love
Is aching all over
The stretching of time
Increases with aging
As all that it wants
Is warmth to release him
The gate once was open Salvation was near
By saving all others
Was doomed to stay here

I will show before the day is ending
That I know
From whom I'm really depending My gratitude
Is all I have to give
By your side
Is where I want to live

Now I see
You helped me recalling
By what you do
You stopped me from falling
There is no one else
Who could ever be Getting near
This close to me

Nightmares

For 15 days and not one more
I had dreams like non before
The visions I thought could not be Became my feared reality

What I thought was true till then Was obscured till the moment when I woke up from this dreadful dream
My eyes still blurred from what I'd seen

My nightmares they are chasing me
What is the truth of what I see Would someone please be ending this Could someone wake me with a kiss

I've had enough of misery
I can not trust in what I see Awake or dreaming I can't tell
For all to long I'm trapped in hell

I have no words in which to tell
I can't recall how long I fell
It's like I had a second life
Was sent to gunfight with a knife

It was impossible to know
Which hidden bomb was next to blow
And every step that I had done
Could always be my final one
