Heaven (Slaves of the Sin)

Flying in your skin
We want the dream has never end
We want more, so much more

We come from the star
We want to taste our blood
Surrender to the sin
Swallow more than souls

Drinking of your body
Madness, we are feeling in the sky
With the touch of your mouth

Colors of the Rain

Work in Progress

Beautiful Wild Flower

Today seems like a day without color
It seems that there is no dream

And you mourn over me
And you cover me with your tears
Are the signs of love for an angel with scars

When the nightmare becomes reality
Come into my arms to protect yourself
You are for me the most beautiful and wild flower
I will be the strongest if you are for me

Today seems like a night without moon
It seems that there is no more light

And the thorns hurt again
And I'll cover you even if I bleed
Are the signs of love for me, you angel with scars

Charm

If paradise is not built in a day
The advice of the gods don't know
We don't need to know the master plan

Sweet surrender, you and I
To feel our hell of sin and lust
With the provision remain imprisoned

Our senses are distant from the distortion
Doing our match outside of time
Feeling beyond the skin, wrapped in each other

The spell on your lips is far stronger than me
The taste of your mouth is tastier than wine
Your moans are divine

Naked to the bone
Your eyes in the sky
Sweet condemnation
Our blood becomes one

Charm in you eyes
Charm in your skin
Sweet and bitter poison
Your chest in my chest

Divine Perversions

When I think in you
Modifies logic in my mind

And I try to hide this feelings
I try to stop
This forbidden thoughts

Come with me
Let me teach you something
Something insane
We will surrender to sin
In the name of love

Tenderness, madness
Like a body language
Is the scream of your skin

And you do not even know that feeling
Oh my little girl
You're about to learn the true passion

Aphrodite

I'm in silence
I'm falling
In the velvet
In the beauty

Like a lighthouse
Showed up
And now I go to you
And now I feel again

I want to touch
I want to feel
Your skin so soft
Your pure soul

So should be
It's not a dream
Is our world
You and me

You're painting my dreams
You're handle
I'm king
And you are my queen

Look the past grey
Now is far
And now the landscape change
And now our life reborn

Revolution

Work in Progress

Razonamiento circular

Debimos capturar
Las memorias
Que nadie creará
Hubieron dos almas
En comunión
Una para otra
Pero un día todo cambio

Mas
No nos vimos mas
Pudimos vencer al dolor
Al cielo conquistar
Dejamos morir nuestro amor

Dias que se iran
Los eones pasaran
Pero nadie podrá cambiar
Nada de esa fábula
Que solo aquí vivirá

Illumination (feat. Felix Marc)

You tell me about your life
Come on, surprise me
This is my time, I'm not ready to listen
I'm ready to fly
Nevertheless you should know
Now it's too late
Because this time I don't care anymore
Here end of questions

I do not want nothing that ever lived
I don't want to hear more foolish speeches
Never mind if you disagree
So funny I once tried to believe
I feel pleasant within my silence
I feel complete living just for me
Away from madness, away from disease
This is my haven, you're not welcome in here

Lichtermeer, Schall und Rauch
Alone feeling the rain
Then I dance and watching the light again
Eternal light

I do not want nothing that ever lived
Never mind if you disagree
So funny I once tried to believe
I feel pleasant within my silence
This is my haven, you're not welcome in here

I do not want nothing that ever lived
Never mind if you disagree
So funny I once tried to believe
I feel pleasant within my silence
This is my haven, you're not welcome in here

Delirious Passion (feat. Alex Braun)

We always knew
What we want
You feel it
Our need

Inside out
You found it
Now we can breathe
In that heavenly scent

Sometimes we refuse to daylight
It's just a mirage
We can not deny what makes us human
What give us life
What makes us feel
What makes us dream

The substance that cause our hunger
We are about to explode
We must do what we have in mind
We are creatures in the night
Creatures of the Night

Satisfy me
A little game of love

Satisfy me
I'm your toy my love

Fly (feat. Henrik Iversen)

Sometimes I want to tell you so much
Sometimes I prefer to keep quiet and turn back

My mind is unfolded before your eyes
My body and soul want to tell you

All in my life
Everything you need
Is to make you mine
To make you fly

I wonder if you even feel something like
I wonder if our heartbeats are beating at the same time

Connects your mind to my mind
My body and soul want to tell you
