Elevate

I'm not even listening
I'm not even listening
This time I'm on my own
This time I'm all out there!

I open my eyes
I see my world in thee
Splintered by the moon
Awaken the amnisiac
Must it all come go?
But in my realm you stay
Like the shadow to my feet
Like the love that never ends

My Time Away

I am calling to ground control
Request permission to abort
My computers have all been hacked
Unresponsive to my command

Feel this mission is going down
Running out of time to escape
Walking into perilous ground
This must be my time away

It's my time away
It's my time away
It's my time away
It's my time away

I'm not even listening
I'm not even listening
This is my time to live
This is my time to breath

I'm not even listening
I'm not even listening
This time I'm on my own
This time I'm all out there!

Descent

Stupid Song

I know I didn't sign for this
This isn't what's supposed to be at all
And even if we try again
The bitterness and pain is just too strong

How could we let it get to this
When all it takes is love and some respect
This wasn't my intention to

Don't wake me when it's over because is dangerous
Don't say I didn't try to you know it's not for good
Don't make false accusation 'cause this ain't just my fault
Don't hate me 'cause I'm right when I write this stupid song

Stop your accusations, please
Ain't nothing gonna stop me anymore
I'm mentally prepared for this
'Cause nothing is forbidden in this world

Why can't we keep it all as friends
Why do we have to argue this nonsense
Relay what your intention is

Don't wake me when it's over because is dangerous
Don't say I didn't try to you know it's not for good
Don't make false accusation 'cause this ain't just my fault
Don't hate me 'cause I'm right when I write this stupid song

Five Minutes to Midnight

Five minutes to midnight
Every second's like an hour
Behind these walls
In every attempt I try to make
I've tried to reach out but you let me down

How can you be so certain?
In this moments of denial
You think you know it all
When venom runs slowly through your veins
Redemption is waiting just down the hall

Begin with the words that will suffice
Just give me a moment to convince myself
I like to pretend it's just a game
But the needle is piercing inside my brain

My patience's breaking my will
Will you come to rescue me?
When this five minutes creep under my apartment door

I am flying low to the ground
With buildings scraping the clouds
When this five minutes creep under my apartment door

Miracles

Living in sadness
Day after day
The clock is ticking
I am thinking of her

I can't keep pretending to myself
The farther I see the nearer you are Even the day light is not the same

Wherever you are
Whenever you want
Whatever you say
I always believed in the miracles
Wherever you are
Whenever you want
Whatever you say
I always believed in the miracles

Looking through windows
Just hoping in vain
Tired of living
In this fairy tale

I can't keep on telling myself lies
I am walking in circles night after night
I wish I had you just one more day

Wherever you are
Whenever you want
Whatever you say
I always believed in the miracles
Wherever you are
Whenever you want
Whatever you say
I always believed in the miracles

Dancing in the Dark

You will levitate the pressure
That's still building up inside
Gotta take you on a journey
Deep into the night
Will you dance with me tonight?
Would you fall into my arms?
It's the first time you apply tough
The perfect bright night

Dancing in the dark
Dancing in the cold of night
Take me to the clouds
When you need the moon and stars
Dancing in the dark
Dancing to the dark of time
Dancing by your side
Move into my arms

We are dancing in the dark
Cause the moon is shining bright
I've been waiting for bright to slip me up into the light
If she doesn't hear
If your face is not so clear
It's the first time you apply tough
The perfect bright night

Dancing in the dark
Dancing in the cold of night
Take me to the clouds
When you need the moon and stars
Dancing in the dark
Dancing to the dark of time
Dancing by your side
Move into my arms

Eternally

Hear the whispers...you're coming close
All surrounded by murky gloom
Feeling cold in the mist of dawn
Loosing count of the passing days

Have you been in a darkened room
Where your feelings just melt away
Heading off into eternal space
Caught inside this forbidden place

The one thing I desire most
To have you and to hold you close
To embrace your hips and kiss your lips
And gaze into your eyes eternally

One more chance is I we need
You and I could live eternally
One more time is all we need to blend our lives forever
It hurts to be without your touch
If you could see the crazy way I feel
One more time is all we need to blend our lives forever

Tired of facing the night alone
Lacking courage to face the world
All I want is to see your face
Caught inside this hypnotic state

The one thing I desire most
To have you and to hold you close
To feel your sweet and deadly kiss
And gaze into your eyes eternally

One more chance is I we need
You and I could live eternally
One more time is all we need to blend our lives forever
It hurts to be without your touch
If you could see the crazy way I feel
One more time is all we need to blend our lives forever
