Encore

Left outside in a corner at the end of the road
Far away from the summer that my friends enjoy
I can't see the colors that surround the world
Trying to keep it together but my chemistry burns
It burns but it keeps me warm

Wish I could be strong enough to ignore your call
But you know how to get me right into your hook... your hook!

Want to get to the encore... but it feels so far away...
Want to be on the other side with you
I take pills I take drugs... yeah, you're making me insane!
Want to get to the encore but with you

Industrial

Slither

I'll take you away from the city lights
I'll pull you aside I'll undress the sky
You know I want you
You know I need you
Into my life
I'll do what you want
Anything you want

Give me your hand and follow me
I'll carry you out into the night
'Cause
You know I want you
You know I need you
Into my life
I'll do what you want
Anything you want

I will take you far away
To a place where we can stay
Where you'll never feel betrayed
Love won't tear your life away

You won't feel pain
You won't bleed again
Breakaway the spell
That just holds you to your knees
Are you feeling me?
When I'm slithering my teeth
Deep into your soul...

Now that you live inside of me
I'll open my heart I'll set you free
'Cause
You know I want you
You know I need you
Into my life
I'll do what you want
Anything you want

L.A. Soldier

I roam the city at night
Battling through the streets
I have no place to hide
I am an L.A. soldier

I have nowhere to go
I battle through the cold
I have no friend or foe
I am an L.A. soldier

I hit the parks at night
I dance among the lights
I never feel alone
I am an L.A. soldier

Liberty

Looking for answers, calling out but no one is there
Raising the questions, moving circles inside my head

Oh liberty, hand, and chisel pave the way
Oh liberty, a new beginning waits for me
Oh liberty, from the things that held me back
Oh liberty, we are free and home at last

Humble beginnings giving way to future events
Tortured, imprisoned, by the thoughts that lay in my head

The Sign

I'm here just looking for a sign that leads me in
We act like children playing to hide and seek for real
Why not just say it like it is
Tell me why in these days there is no point on trying to have some chivalry

I want you to feel me inside of you beneath your skin
I want to crawl over your curves and drip my juice
Why not just say it like it is
Tell me instead of sex the pressure's hard on making love

I just want to be with you
It's all I ever want to do
To make our dreams come true
To make ourselves feel good

Cause I can't compare you
It's of the illusion trying to be
Without you by my side
Without you in my life

Here I am
Plain and true
Waiting for your hand to reach
Lift me up in ecstasy as you lay

I just want to be with you
It's all I ever want to do
To make our dreams come true
To make ourselves feel good

Cause I can't compare you
It's of the illusion trying to be
Without you by my side
Without you in my life

Beacon

I'm getting cold and you don't need to know
How many years I've waited here for you
The city lights that keep me up all night
Persuaded by the lust to see you again

So is it love?

So is it love if no one else can take the place you left in here
I'd rather wait till the end
I'd rather wait

I'm getting cold standing by the shore
Ships come and go not leaving room for hope
It's getting late and I still count the days
Cause I don't want to see no one else

So is it love?

Is it just something that you get and can't control
Another beacon in the night

So is it love?

If no one else can take the place you left in here
I'd rather wait till the end
I'd rather wait

So is it love?

Is it just something that you get and can't control
Another beacon in the night

So is it love?

If no one else can take the place you left in here
I'd rather wait till the end

So is it love?

Is it just something that you get and can't control
Another beacon in the night

So is it love?

If no one else can take the place you left in here
I'd rather wait till the end
I'd rather wait

Candyman

See the devil in her beauty
Bloody secrets, crazy weekends
A runaway from the pain she feels

Stars are howling... Night is calling
Pressure is pumping, bodies jumping
Let me guide you, right thru this way

Let me be your Candyman
Let me be your Candyman

You come begging for attention
But you're just under eighteen
Lips like sugar that I want to taste

Let me be your candy man
All it takes it's just one time
Let me just take you by the hand
I'll be your host of dreams tonight
I will be your candy man

The sound of angels all around her
Fall from heaven, I'll be condemned to
You feel tipsy and I can't say no

You come begging body aching
But you're just under eighteen
Lips like sugar I still want to taste

Let me be your candy man
All it takes it's just one time
Let me just take you by the hand
I'll be your host of dreams tonight
I will be your candy man

Mindless

Longing for your sweet breath
Here I am longing for you
Missing you in every way
So much is hard to imagine
I wanted to be around you
Always and forever
I just want you here right now
And hope we stay together

Mind if it's you playing games
I'll have to let you go your own way
Mind if it's you tricking me
Why does she feel so real beside me
Mind if it's you don't do me harm
Do I believe or do I cry
Mind if it's you making fun
It's just another mindless day

I thought of you again yesterday
Today and tomorrow
I think of you thru sleepless nights
To escape from all my sorrows
If you were only here one night
I would solidify you
I'd make a statue of your face
And every day adore you
