...Can Manage...

I lie beside you It's a love to celebrate Coming nearer... stay away You'll need my fist to understand The wall between us makes me blind Makes me blind

I want to keep your... Your image in my brain Tears stay nice to dry by me You know I like it if you cry It's hard to hide my secrets from you Hard to hide

It's you I want to keep That's why I love you It's you I want to keep That's why I love you That's why I love you

Je vous adore, mon ami Souvereign de torture Souvereign de vice Ta main qui ne cherche que mon bonheur

Les cicatrices sur ma peau M'en souvient que tu m'aimes...

Que m'aimes-tu!

Jamais je ne démasquerai notre mystère Je le garderai pour toujours N'ai pas peur... je crirai

I want you shy I want you hurl curing Under darkest bedroom skies Control our want... it's pain I give Guess beeing souls are floating in my ear In my ear

I chose your fear I chose your ability Oh, I need your rear company Your velvet scratched under me What shall I do with your tenderness, my dear?

It's you I want to keep That's why I love you It's you I want to keep That's why I love you It's you I want to keep That's why I love you

It's you... I want to keep It's you... that's why I love you What shall I do with your tenderness, my dear?

Following You

You're walking through the night Still can't near in light And I'm following behind

You're playing games of sin None that fools can win And I'm following behind

Following you... Following you...

Do lovers understand your ply? You command and they'll obey And I'm watching from behind

One step forward, two steps back I'm still following your track And I'm watching from behind

Following you... Following you...

Waiting here beside you Waiting for your call Watching liars passing by Uh, I hate them all Don't you realize That I'm the only one Who's good for you?

You're so heartlessly sincere But I'm still following you endlessly I'm following behind

You ain't whore, you ain't nun On the hunt and on the run And I'm watching from behind

Always cheating, telling lies Behind your door I heard you sigh: "Oh prudence, come and rescue me!"

"Prudence come and rescue me!" Following you...

"Prudence come and rescue me!"

Following you...
"Prudence come and rescue me!"

"Prudence come and rescue me!" Following you...

"Prudence come and rescue me!" Following you...

"Prudence come and rescue me!" Following you...

"Prudence come and rescue me!"
Following you...

"Prudence come and rescue me!" Following you...

"Prudence come and rescue me!" Following you...

Annie

And you're sitting in your room Enjoying entertainment And you're watching tv Colours bright and so enchanting

You couldn't be near her Wouldn't hear what Annie says When Annie's sad You couldn't be near her Wouldn't hear what Annie says

And your waiting for your daily thrill impatiently...

To collect it for your private horror show

And you're watching moving shadows live instead of you... and you...

You don't know that Annie's living next to you

Jesus Christ we love you so
Since we saw your tv-show
Suicidal tendencies, but no will to interfere
Feel it coming over you... indifference... indifference...
Choosing channels watching news
Ignoring Annie's point of view

You couldn't be near her Wouldn't hear what Annie says When Annie's sad You couldn't be near her Wouldn't hear what Annie says

You couldn't be near her Wouldn't hear when annie laughs... when Annie laughs You couldn't be hear her Wouldn't feel that Annie... Annie loves

Leading Men

Talking loud, she's talking clear But no one really wants to hear No one really wants to know And her loneliness still grows Was it shame or was it fear When his devil's face appeared?

And the wall between them grows The wall between them grows Tonight, velvet night

He met her on the school yard Funny man behind the fence Started with a real deception He didn't try in vain Who has failed this, who once more? A tall man offering sweets No one wants to think about it And evil sows its seeds

He tries to hold her in his arms
He always tries to keep her warm
Blue-eyed girl, grown up to fast
Lost her innocence at last
Cruel revenge hurt in her heart
Breaks dependences apart
And now he's begging on his knees
Lay your guilty hands on me!

And the wall between them grows The wall between them grows Tonight, velvet night

I should be so lucky
But I can't help feeling blue
I felt no real attention
Unsatisfied by youth
You brought up a lonely child
Without a human shape
Made the greatest sacrifice
Realized it much too late
Too late

It's Not Too Late

Clumsy, always quivering Always searching for your thing You don't work, but you cannot find a rest 'Cause you gave up too soon

Old man sitting in your trap Two lovers passing by Don't be ashamed, don't be upset, Enjoy it, dear... 'cause once you did the same

It's not too late... to charm away your ancient fears It's not too late... to be wild for roundabouts... to be Wild for life...

Old man lying in your bed Your friends are passing by It's just a rule, kissing you goodbye, Enjoy it, dear... 'cause once you did the same

I came across a feww old things Remembering the past "Spare the rod and spoil the child... There's no fool like an old fool!"

It's not too late... to start again
It's not too late... to charm away your ancient fears
It's not too late... to be wild for roundabouts... to be Wild for life...

The Sparrows and the Nightingales

How long have you been free In this world of hate and greed Is it black or is it white Let's find another compromise

And our future standing still We're dancing in the spotlight Where is the leader who leads me I'm still waiting Leaving home

And God is on your side Dividing sparrows from the nightingales Watching all the time Dividing water from the burning fire, inside

Leave a light on in the night for me
That I can find you
Remember when we both where young and reckless and so curious
Now you're hiding from your child
A new day's dawning
Remember that you felt alive sometimes

And God is on your side Dividing cruelty from tenderness Watching all the time Dividing fiction from reality

Move in circles, walk on lines
No human being in sight
Calm the winds and calm the seas
Let's try another kind of peace
Who fights this holy civil war
A million men in uniform
Wo ist der Führer der mich führt
Ich warte immer noch
Leaving home

And God is on your side Dividing presence from the history Watching all the time Dividing deaf men from the listening ones

And God is on your side Dividing soldiers from the fishermen Watching all the time Dividing warships from the ferryboats

Angry Today

You see shocking posters shouting at you Somewhere from a subway wall Full of promises and glory And the cutest headlines that you ever saw You have to read and to believe That all these things, that they have the worth But, if you look a little closer You're always aiming to unmask the dirt

Angry today...

And all alone you're on this planet Earth Angry today...

And you're the only one who understands

You have your own life you can waste And lovers you can cheat That strange addiction to decay is haunting you Haunting you, haunting you

I've... my friend from the... to the government Here and there and anywhere The human preach is rage The standard could advance you While standing alone on the other side That's why I'm angry today

Angry today...

And all alone you're on this planet Earth Angry today... And you're the only one who understands

A politician signs all contracts
With a light expression on his face
While all prophets are simply singing
Lullabies for the human race
When love is with of us one day
We will have left at least
And step-mother industry's whispering softly to me

Angry today...

And all alone you're on this planet Earth

Angry today...

And you're the only one who understands

Angry today...

And all alone you're on this planet Earth

Angry today...

And you're the only one who understands $% \left(x\right) =\left(x\right) +\left(x\right)$

Angry today...

And all alone you're on this planet Earth

Angry today...

And you're the only one who understands

Angry today...

And all alone you're on this planet Earth

Angry today...

And you're the only one who understands

Angry...

Kissing the Wall

Ich seh' dich und ich glaube 'S ist ein Ton... nie gehört! Hör' den Schlag meines Herzens Kiss the wall... ohne Schmerz

Sieh' diesen Mann... ganz allein Will keine Hilfe, weil's ihn schmerzt Zeit zu gehen, Zeit zu hungern 'S ist noch Zeit für'n letztes Wort...

Wie ein Hammerschlag an die Wand gespuckt Wie ein Riss in mir 'S ist wie ganz weit weg Wie ein Hammerschlag an die Wand gespuckt Wie ein Riss in mir 'S ist wie ganz weit weg Wie ein Hammerschlag an die Wand gespuckt Wie ein Riss in mir 'S ist wie ganz weit weg Wie ein Hammerschlag an die Wand gespuckt Wie ein Riss in mir 'S ist wie ganz weit weg Wie ein Hammerschlag an die Wand gespuckt Wie ein Riss in mir 'S ist wie ganz weit weg Wie ein Hammerschlag an die Wand gespuckt Wie ein Riss in mir 'S ist wie ganz weit weg

Du gehst... du gehst... du gehst... du gehst

This Time

Walking through winter, through snow-white fields Colder than cold... for several weeks And the lost fire's burning miles away And the wind whispers stories in her ears

And she's asking: "Do you hear these heavenly voices? Do you hear the preacher who wants you to pray?"

And this night so much colder than every night And she says, she likes winter and winter-trees And the sun seens so far away tonight In the dark and deep, frozen water the light Of the moon under which she dies O the moon under which we cry

...death knocking at the door... I must let him in... Life like a river flows... outside... stay alive! Ten-thousand good reasons to survive...

And she's asking: "Do you hear these heavenly voices? Do you hear the preacher who wants you to pray?"

Walking through winter, through snow-white fields Colder than cold... for several weeks And the lost fire's burning miles away And the wind whispers stories in her ears

Stay alive! My dear... I kiss your cold hands...
First time... please stay alive... I'm loving you... you're Loving me... imagine that you were at home...
This night... please try it!
Don't leave me alone!

Anybody's Window

Look through anybody's window See everywhere the same People suffering from hunger A narcotizing pain Call it justice call it fair I just call it a mistake Starving mothers cry for help In this state of decay

In this ruthless time
And they heard their favourite popsongs
To remind of times of wisdom
They heard a thousand voices say
Satisfaction fortune health
So far away

Look through anybody's window...

Looking people in their eyes
See the concrete things behind
See the false tears that they cry
Feel the sleeping guilt inside
Pray to heaven pray to hell
Pray for reason for a way
Public forces sleeping byI
No longer dream of paradise

Look through anybody's window...

Listen!

You are so near to me
Fall carefully!
In love you could be the one
The one for me
It's time to change dust into ivory
It's time to kiss your lips
To ask: "Please, would you marry me?"
